DIVERSITY, EQUITY, AND INCLUSION POLICY

At the Law Offices of Natasha S. Chee, we recognize that diversity of perspective makes us stronger and more effective in the results we achieve for our clients who themselves are diverse in all aspects that make an individual or company unique and valuable. A diverse, equitable, and inclusive law firm, including the firm's attorney(s) and staff, is essential in providing our clients with excellent legal services, preserving our core principles, and maintaining a rich culture which fosters good community values.

As an expression of our firm's commitment to excellence through diversity, equity, and inclusion, we work to actively educate the members of our firm and the greater legal community about the many valuable distinctions that make us stronger, while reflecting the communities we represent. We achieve this by our attorney(s) participating in diversity, equity, and inclusion training, authoring articles, giving presentations, advocating for underserved communities and individuals, pro bono legal services, and teaching in the community, as well as a plethora of other efforts.
